

attention is given to their general education and to physical training. Full opportunities are provided to take part in games and exercise in the open air and in the social activities of their unit. Whilst undergoing training apprentices receive pay of 7s. weekly during the first year and 10s. 6d. weekly until they both qualify and have reached the age of 18. Their food, outfit, and accommodation are provided by the Service. Subsequently pay varies from 21s. to 31s. 6d. a week according to the degree of success attained at the passing out examination. Opportunities occur later for advancement in rank with increased rates of pay.

All apprentice clerks have an opportunity to volunteer for training as airman pilots, and those ultimately selected for flying duty
